FLEX –

Rowing: First meeting this Tuesday to participate in the Rowing Club.

Passion Project Showcase is on Friday 11:30-12:30 officially

We have some invited guests including Myron Roth from Aquaculture Canada who will be giving out a $250 prize to the winning video from our Field Trip. Tru-Vic candidate teachers will be there as well as some students from Reynolds Students will be sharing their passion projects as well as choices of projects from the year they are proud of-- videos, magazine, Environmental Science Journal, Journalism articles, poetry, writing...

The school front is still in progress....planted one section with support from Saanich Parks donating seed and mulch and moved the plastic to the next of 4 sections
Will reseed in October as well-- have been donated some local Camas seed from a past grandparent of Reynolds

Robotics team has a successful trip to Texas for the World Robotics Championships including several Flex Students who got the program up and running...

John Horgan and Rob Flemming came to Reynolds to announce $250,000 towards FIRST Robotics in BC to support Robotics and STEM education... The team demonstrated their robot at the press event in the theatre. This has stimulated the program at Reynolds to grow for next year!

We have had some great field trips to Galiano Island for alternative energy which included among many other things students making their own smoothies on human powered bike blenders and Aquiculture Canada Event which included a visit to a Metchosin Aquaponics start up business.

Model Parliament preparations are in full swing leading up to the main event at the legislature on June 13th where the Reynolds Flex class will be the very first group of students to actually sit in the house to enact their model parliament and engage in presenting and debating their bills (Universal Income, Child Care and Reducing the Voting Age).

Students have their final workshop with Leah from LifeCycles in the Garden today making more DIY products from harvest. The garden is growing nicely... maybe PAC wants to hold their meeting out there
We just purchased 2 shelters with grant money from Whole Kids.

Service Awards being given out at the Year End Assembly on June 14th followed by Leadership hosted fun lunch with free icecream and bubble soccer plus other fun activities.
